

Calypso Cards is now publishing and distributing Curly Girl Design greeting cards!

Nicky Burton the owner and founder of Calypso Cards has teamed up with Leigh Standley, the creator of Curly Girl Design! The match is the perfect pairing of original design and thoughtful expression. Both Nicky and Leigh believe strongly in the power of the written word to bring people together. Curly Girl Design's cards fit perfectly with Calypso's mission of "giving voice and style to everyone's desire to connect".

Calypso Cards and Curly Girl Design both launched at the National Stationery Show in 2004 and since then each has followed its own route to become a successful business. Curly Girl Design branched into various licensed products, while Calypso Cards focused on greeting cards, distributing lines from around the world and developing their own publishing program working with licensed artists.

Curly Girl Design cards can now be ordered alongside all other Calypso brands, invoiced and delivered together.
